

I have personally put my number on the "Do Not Call" list and I feel that the law should stay the way it is. I do not want to be contacted unless I have directed a company to contact me. The amount of numbers on the list shows that New Jersey residents are tired of being interrupted by unwanted phone calls and feel that the law is fine as it is. Please leave the New Jersey laws as it is. I do not believe it needs any changing.